4. The Applicant applies to the Companies Tribunal in terms of Section 11(2) of the Companies Act 71 of 2008 ("the Companies Act"), a name of a company must not be the same as the name of another company, domesticated company, registered external company, close corporation or co-operative and must not be confusingly similar.

EVALUATION AND FINDINGS

10. Section 11 (2) of the Companies Act requires me to determine whether the name of the respondent is confusingly similar to that of the Applicants trademark. They both have the word Fitbit in them. When members of the public see the Respondents name they will think of the Applicant. This may give members of the public the impression that it is owned by the Applicant with the potential to cause reputational damage to the Applicant.
11. The purpose of section 11 of the Companies Act is to protect names from being passed off by new companies registering similar names at the expense of the original name or trademark holder of the company. I thus find in favour of the Applicant.

ORDER

- a. I find in favour of the Applicant
- b. The First Respondent is directed to change its name to one which does not incorporate and is not confusingly and or deceptively similar to Applicant's. It should not include the word Fitbit in any form.

section 14(2) of the Act, to change the respondent's name to is registered company number being 2021/482724/08 as the Respondent's interim company name on the Companies register.
